From the Rabbi's Desk

Dear Congregants,

Our hearts are shattered, and our souls are in mourning. At this critical time, we must stand united.

United in our sorrow.

United in condemning the horrific attacks that occurred last Shabbat, October 7th, 2023.

United in our resolve to support our brothers and sisters in Israel, who are fighting to defend themselves.

United in condemning the hate-filled terrorist organization, Hamas, whose stated purpose is to annihilate the State of Israel and to murder and eradicate the Jews who live there.

Caught off guard, attacked by terrorists hell-bent on destruction, our brothers and sisters suffered some of the most gruesome atrocities committed against our people in recent history. Prior to this surprise, unprovoked attack, we could not fathom what our ancestors lived through during past pogroms and the Holocaust, but now, sadly, we are reliving chapters from our past. Heinous acts of violence that we might have thought inconceivable in the 21st century, among them the murder, torture, and kidnapping of babies, children, women, and the elderly, have been committed.

We ask in shock and bewilderment – how could this have happened? How could people be filled with so much hatred that they are driven to murder people they do not know just because they are Jews who live in the land of Israel? And we ask: how could any decent person possibly justify or rationalize the murderous actions of Hamas?

We call upon the good people of the world to join us in condemning Hamas.

We call upon all people of conscience to recognize the threat posed by a totalitarian, terrorist organization and to realize the moral imperative we have to eliminate this threat.

We thank President Joe Biden, Secretary Antony Blinken, members of Congress, our public officials and other international leaders who have expressed support for Israel and recognize

Message from the President

As I reflected on this year's uplifting and enjoyable Rosh Hashanah services, and all the activities associated with the Holidays, I remembered reading Rabbi Jonathan Sacks words about Judaism being a complex and subtle faith. As many of you know, Rabbi Sacks served as the Chief Rabbi of England. I searched for the article I read and would like to share with you the rest of his words. The Rabbi went on to say that even though Judaism is a complex and subtle faith, "it has rarely lost touch with its simple ethical imperatives. We are here to make a difference, to mend the fractures of the world, a day at a time, an act at a time, for as long as it takes to make it a place of justice and compassion where the lonely are not alone, the poor not without help; where the cry of the vulnerable is heeded and those who are wronged are heard." I found this statement to be very touching and poignant. I realized that during my term as President I not only learnt a great deal about these holidays, but I began to truly understand the importance of the Jewish holidays and their celebrations in and to my life. For the first time, perhaps, I realized what it really means to be Jewish. I therefore would like to share some of my thoughts on the meaning of being "Jewish". I do realize that each and every one of us has his/her own perspective.

To me, Judaism is not really a race because Jews do not share one common ancestry, e.g. Ashkenazi Jews and Sephardic Jews are both "Jewish". However, whereas Ashkenazi Jews often come from Europe, Sephardic Jews often come from the Middle East via Spain or Morocco. People of many different races have become Jewish over the centuries. Jews come from countries all over the world. We can say that to be Jewish means that we are part of the Jewish people, whether because we were born into a Jewish home and culturally identify as Jewish (Cultural Judaism) or because we practice the Jewish religion (Religious Judaism) or both.

Cultural Judaism: Cultural Judaism includes things such as Jewish foods, customs, holidays and rituals. As we all know, many people are born into Jewish homes and are raised eating "typical" Jewish foods such as blintzes and lighting Shabbat candles on Shabbos, but never step foot inside a synagogue. According to Orthodox and Conservative Judaism in America, or by traditional standards worldwide, Jewish identity is automatically bestowed on babies of Jewish mothers. This Jewish identity stays with us throughout life even if we don't actively practice Judaism.

Religious Judaism: Religious Judaism includes the beliefs of the Jewish religion. The way a person practices the Jewish religion can take many forms, and partially for this reason, as we all know, there are differ-its right to defend itself.

We support our brothers and sisters in Israel, and the members of the Israel Defense Forces, who are now responding to the slaughter of innocent civilians and the capture of hostages, as they battle the evil perpetrators of these crimes and protect the citizens of Israel. Regrettably, there will be casualties of this war, because Hamas purposefully operates within the midst of the civilian population and hides behind human shields. We deplore the loss of innocent life and the pain those in Israel have suffered. The blood of Gazan civilians is on the hands of Hamas terrorists who care more about killing Jews than about protecting their own people.

We hope and pray that the vision of the Hebrew prophets shall come to pass, that "all shall sit under their vine and fig tree, and none shall make them afraid." Amen.

ent movements of Judaism. Many people who are born into Jewish homes affiliate with one of these movements. If a person is not born Jewish, she or he can convert to Judaism by studying with a rabbi and undergoing the process of conversion. They must complete the conversion process in order to be considered Jewish.

Ultimately, I feel, to be Jewish is to be a member of a culture, a religion, and a people. Being Jewish is about relationships-between us and G-d, us and us and our family, us and our neighbors, us and our people, us and humankind. In essence it is about the bonds that bind us to one another and to Hashem. Judaism in the highest sense is about friendship. Jews are unique in that we are one - Judaism in the highest sense is about friendship.

Jews are unique in that we are one of the few, if only, "people" in the world that encompass both a religious, cultural and national aspect. What I found during the course of my years, not only as President but as a member of the CBT family, is that to be Jewish is to be many things all at once. Being part of the Congregation Beth Tikvah Community played the biggest role in solidifying my feeling of "Jewishness" of mind.

So, as another year begins let us not forget that being Jewish is about the bonds that bind us to one another and to Hashem – we are all in this "together". May 5784 bring peace to the world and to each of us and our families much health, happiness and peace of mind.

Men's Club

Well, the high holidays are behind and its time to look ahead. But first, a shoutout has to go those Men's Club shtarkers who helped erect and take down the main sukkah as well as the Rabbi's.

So, in no particular order, a great big thank you and yasher koach to: Dave Glickman, Rich Slutzah, Ken Honig, Bob Gross, Rich Rosenkrantz, Sy Susswein, Rabbi Weisblum, Harvey Greenberg, Richard Bockstein, Vic Feiweil, Ron Schwartz, Ray Bazini, Stu Spector, Jody Wald, Ab Rother, Aaron Landman, Harold Rosen, Larry Slutzky and Dave Kamlet.

If you'll forgive me for a not so humorous play on words, maybe instead of referring to us as the shleppers and shtarkers, in this case maybe we can be called the SUK-

KERS. (BOOH, HISSS:)
LOL

Anyway, looking ahead, our membership drive is underway. Applications and dues are coming in nicely along with entry into our World Series pool. Thanks to Sol Zweben and Neil Berkowitz for overseeing the pool.

Our annual paid up membership dinner has been moved from Tuesday, November 21st to Wednesday November 29th. As usual, a fun night is in store for all our paid up members with plenty of nosh, food, drink and entertainment. So get your dues paid up and come on down for a great time.

I'm pleased to announce that, once again, the Men's Club will oversee and staff the annual Congregation Chanukah Party to be held on Saturday, December 2nd at 6 pm.

The annual Murray Zwerling Men's Club Shabbat is set for Friday, December 1st. If you are interested in having a part, contact Sy Susswein and indicate if you prefer a Hebrew or English part.

Look for upcoming info on our annual movie night, hockey night at an Islanders game and fitness night at the Mid-Island Y JCC gym.

Until the next time,

Sisterhood

Sisterhood was very active in October. We had a great time in the Sukkah eating pizza while the Rabbi told us about Sukkot. After all that food, we went into the social hall for dessert and coffee. A good time was had by the sellout crowd of women. Special thanks to Linda Katz and Sandy Shuchman for their hard work in making this event so successful.

Our first mitzvah project, collecting women's hygiene products for Long Island Cares was highlighted in the Nassau Observer newspaper. We are so proud of the enormous response we had to this project and are thrilled by the recognition we received by the newspaper. Special thanks to Susan Wald for organizing it. Our second mitzvah project will be a Toy Drive for the Goryeb Children's Hospital in Morristown New Jersey. We chose this hospital because one of our own Sisterhood member's grandsons received excellent care there. We are asking each of our Sisterhood members to bring an unwrapped toy to our Paid-Up membership dinner on November 8th. For more information, you can contact Susan Wald.

Our book club is back and in full swing. We discussed Leaving Eastern Parkway by Matthew Daub and it was an interesting discussion. We will be choosing a new book in the future.

If you are still interested in sending Leagrams for birthdays and anniversaries please get in touch with Karen Seltzer as this is a wonderful way for you to send greetings to all the members of our Congregation and you don't want to be left out.

Our next big event is our Paid-Up Membership dinner on November 8th. If you have not joined Sisterhood yet its time you did. This is a great opportunity to have a delicious meal and say hello to old friends and meet new ones, Contact Regina Leaf for more information.

Social Action by Beth Goldberg

Please note: The views expressed in the following column is solely those of the author and do not, in any way, express the views of the CBT or its members.

We have learned of the horror of the Hamas attack on Israel, which was the most lethal attack against Jews since the Holocaust. Some coverage of the media referred to the terrorists as militants, which minimizes the barbaric atrocities against innocent civilians. Over 200 hostages ages nine months to elderly Holocaust survivors are still captives. Residents of the Gaza are being prevented from leaving the areas and being used as human shields.

Distorted reports were issued by the media that Israel was responsible for the rocket that hit a Gaza hospital and killed and injured hundreds of people. This false news inflamed and cause violent protests in the Mideast and elsewhere. Fortunately, the IDF had video and tracking that proved that the rocket was launched by the Islamic Jihad. We should contact the media urging them to report this chapter of history and the news accurately.

We should write to President Biden, Secretary of State Antony Blinken for their support and trips to Israel during a war and assuring the US support for its Democratic ally in the Mideast. They pledged billions of dollars in aid so that Israel would get what it needs to defend itself. The Iron Dome would be fully supplied to prevent attacks from the sky. Also, two aircraft carrier strike groups are in the Eastern Mediterranean waters as a signal to hostile nations not to take advantage of Israel's weakened position and attack it.

There are many ways that we can support Israel and the hostages by contacting elected representatives with phone calls, and letter writing to continue their support of Israel and get the terrorists to release the hostages. Join in rallies and make donations to worthy organizations that will help the civilians and IDF that are lacking supplies including protective gear such as ceramic shields for soldiers.

During these turbulent times there has been an upsurge in antisemitism and violent attacks on Jews, Arabs and Moslems. New York Governor Kathy Hochul has launched a new phone hotline and online form where New Yorkers can report hate and bias crimes. That phone number is: 844-NO-2-Hate. This is in conjunction with the New York State Division of Human Rights and Bias Prevention Unit. We must stop Hate as soon as it grows.

Bikur Cholim News

Bikur Cholim (also transliterated Bikur holim) refers to the mitzvah (Jewish religious commandment) to visit and extend aid to the sick. It is considered an aspect of gemilut chasadim (benevolence, selflessness, loving-kindness). It is traditional to recite prayers for healing, such as the Mi Shebeirach prayer in the synagogue, and Psalms on behalf of the sick. Bikur Cholim societies exist in Jewish communities around the world. The earliest bikur holim society on record dates back to the early Middle Ages. The roots of Bikur Cholim can be traced back to the Torah, when G-d visits Abraham after his circumcision (Genesis 18:1).

Here at Congregation Beth Tikvah our committee strives to keep in touch with members who are ill or even just need to have their day brightened a bit. We send cards, make phone calls, visit and may provide a drive to an appointment or assist with an occasional shopping.

If you think you could assist with any of the above activities... I would love to have you join our committee.

Tehillim or Psalms, have been recited by Jews for thousands of years. These ancient prayers open our hearts and bring renewal and strength to our daily lives. We at CBT in conjunction with Bikur Cholim have formed a Tehillim Circle. Please join us on the second Tuesday of most months for our Tehillim Service for the healing of our sick. For specific schedules of services check our Shabbat Shalom or call Leah Hartman at home 516-221-5133 or cell 516-459-2021. The power of this group is that it utilizes the collective strengths of those who are saying the psalms together. Join us and bring the names of those persons to be included in our prayers. If you can't make it, call the office with the person's name and their mother's name, and we will include the person's name in our communal listing.

Rally for Israel at Merrick Jewish Center—October 9, 2023

This event, in support of Israel, gathered roughly 400-500 people. It started a little late due to cars lined up in the street around the block looking for parking, there were so many people. Various rabbis, cantors, Father Nicky from local Greek Church all spoke in support of Israel and the local Jewish communities. Politicos there: Donald Clavin, Jeanine Driscoll, Kate Murray, Steve Rhoads & others. Our Rabbi Weisblum spoke unscripted, from the heart. A member from MJC who was a lone soldier in the IDF, now back here, was trying to raise money for special protective vests for his former unit- goal was $6K; they collected way more.

Rally in Support of Israel at Eisenhower Park—October 10, 2023

We were 6000 people (per Newsday). There were tons of security by NCPD- patrol cars, officers on ground, helicopter & drone in air, mounted police on horseback. Bruce Blakeman's office organized county-wide rally – his wife is Israeli & has lots of family there. Some guest speakers – Rabbi Anchelle Perl of Chabad of Mineola, Mazi Pilip, Nassau Cty legislator @ Great Neck – Ethiopian Jew rescued to Israel, now in US, serving her community in Nassau County, as well as Christian and Muslim clergy. Many of the crowd were not Jewish, but cam to show their support. At the end of the rally, kids from college and day schools rushed the stage, singing "am Yisrael Chair", while waving Israeli flags.

 Wounding and mutilating innocents body and head.

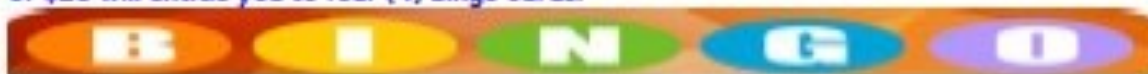

Music lovers at a festival were slaughtered
 Murders and atrocities have been reported.
 Hamas launched and all out assault,
 When Israel was unprepared and not at fault.
 Four thousand rockets overwhelmed the iron dome,
 While civilians tried to stay safe in shelter and home.

The atrocities of this war
 Are more gruesome than before,
 Asymmetrical warfare is a different threat.
 With the tragic losses that we regret.
 This was a deadly surprise attack.
 One that Hamas will regret as Israel fights back.

"SUPER-CALI-FRAGIL-ISTIC-EXPI-ALI-DOCIOUS, A SPOONFUL OF SUGAR, CHIM CHIM CHER-EE, LET'S GO FLY A KITE..."

The jack-of-all trades, Bert, introduces us to England in 1910 and the troubled Banks family. As their new nanny, Mary Poppins uses a combination of magic and common sense to teach the family how to value each other again. Mary Poppins takes the children, Jane & Michael, on many magical adventures. She teaches the children, and the whole family, that even grown-ups can learn a lesson or two from the nanny who advises that "Anything can happen if you let it."

Mary Poppins is an enchanting mixture of irresistible story, unforgettable songs, breathtaking dance numbers and astonishing stagecraft.

TOY DRIVE

While we are busy cooking latkes, and spinning dreidels with our families, many children spend the holidays in the hospital.

As our menorahs brighten our homes, we can brighten the days of children at Goryeb Children's Hospital, in Morristown NJ. This is where one of our Sisterhood member's grandsons received excellent care.

Please bring a new, unwrapped toy to our Sisterhood Paid-Up Membership Dinner on Wednesday November 8 and help Sisterhood continue to make mitzvahs happen.

If you wish to make a cash donation or cannot attend but would still like to donate a toy, please contact Susan Wald allfivewalds@gmail.com or (516)376-9664

Thank you for your generosity.

The Jerry Friedman Memorial Walkway

The Jerry Friedman Memorial Walkway is the latest addition to our newly renovated synagogue. It memorializes a long-term member of our congregation and is a beautiful way to remember special people or events in our lives. Order bricks to commemorate a special occasion, honor a special person or event, or in memory of a loved one.

The cost is $75.00 per brick. Please use the order form on the reverse side.

Jerry Friedman: A Gentleman - A Gentle Man

Jerry was deeply involved in the Wantagh Jewish Center and served in many roles including Membership Vice President, Member of the Board of Trustees and President of the Men's Club. He served as Kol Nidre Appeal Chairperson, was a member of the Long Term Planning Committee, Synagogue Consolidation Committee and Shabbat Aliyah Chairperson.

Clearly, Jerry's most notable and visible role was that of the official "Shabbos Greeter". For many years, everyone who entered our doors for services was personally greeted with a handshake, a warm greeting, maybe a kiss and a feeling of being welcomed and wanted. Everyone who entered our doors knew Jerry - "A Gentleman and a Gentle Man."

Congregation Beth Tikvah is a proud member of The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism

Honor your family and friends, celebrate special occasions, or remember a loved one with a tree planted in Israel. Your recipient will receive a personalized tree certificate to acknowledge your thoughtful gift and Israel will receive the gift of life.

Since 1901, JNF has planted over 210 million trees in Israel, creating over a half million acres of forested land. One or more trees planted in Israel:

- Protect Israel's soil against erosion
- Preserve Israel's precious watersheds
- Show a practical, meaningful concern for the environment
- Help replenish oxygen and provide a habitat for wildlife

For $18.00 you can Honor your family and friends
