The Award Winning

Beth Tikvah Times

October 2024/Elul-Tishrei 5784

Volume 12, Issue 10

From the Rabbi's Desk

Dear Congregants,

October 2024 encapsulates the high holidays and Sukkot as well as the fall. The trees are shedding leaves in different hues. An aroma of revitalization and feeling of renewal are in the air. Jewish people all around the world are celebrating the beginning of a new year. There is a special attention to purification as we attempt to clean our environment, our bodies and souls. Some buy new clothes while others wear traditional white robes that are intended specifically for Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur.

The kitchens are buzzing with customary Rosh Hashana signs, guests' lists are prepared and wishes for the new year exchanged. Within these delightful practices we ponder about the meaningful Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur prayers. Some of us started preparing by joining the Zoom meetings of Congregation Beth Tikvah and listening to the Shofar blowing while others are taking the special prayer books of the shelf and glance through the old holy pages to be better prepared.

Planning and facilitating the High Holiday services takes manpower, networking and intense thinking. This year we are honored to have the renowned Cantor Glantz with us. We are confident that you will enjoy his cantorial chanting that will lead in the High Holiday services to be connected to our creator.

As we will pray there will be three words that will repeat during the services. These words are: Teshuva, Tefilla and Tzedaka or repentance, prayer and charity respectfully.

Our sages draw a connection between these words and the Shema prayer. Through the Shema prayer we are commanded to love G-D with all of our heart, our might and resources. Our sages explain that the repentance is parallel to our heart, the prayer is parallel to our might and charity is parallel to our resources. Therefore, our sages conclude that these very words that can change our New Year destiny are hinted already in our holy Torah.

The Shema prayer has been taught to the young Jewish children and many turn to this prayer when they seek G-D's guidance and blessing.

Congregation Beth Tikvah is well known for its charitable events and compassion to all.

In the merit of all the good deeds that our congregation enabled, I would like to wish every single one of you a Happy New Year. A sweet year, abundance of health, wealth, prosperity, peace, and happiness.

Looking forward to an awesome year!

HOLIDAY FOOD

As the High Holidays approach, we might find ourselves dreaming about the foods we associate with the New Year celebrations. Food plays a central and multi-layered role in Jewish life. Many holidays are defined, and remembered, as much by their meals as by their non-culinary rituals. (think of the Passover Seder, the Sabbath dinner, or Yom Kippur's breaking of the fast.)

The holiday meal is first and foremost an excuse for family and friends to gather. Furthermore, Jews love eating! Ask a Jew what they remember about childhood holidays, and the first answer is likely to be Grandma's stuffed cabbage or matzoh ball soup. The Torah's detailed instructions about what can and cannot be eaten became the basis of modern kosher laws. But beyond the proscriptions of the kosher rules, the association between particular holidays and particular foods is often a function of geography and tradition.

For example, Ashkenazi Jews consume honey on Rosh Hashanah. But as Claudia Roden points out in her wonderful "Book of Jewish Food", beekeeping is not mentioned in the Bible. Concentrated date syrup is thought to be a more "authentic" sweetener.

Similarly, apples are now common on the Rosh Hashanah table. But they are not indigenous to the Middle East. In fact, the infamous Garden of Eden "apple tree" is more likely to have been a fig tree. French Jews commonly include onion quiche for Rosh Hashanah, whereas Jews from India eat a chicken dish reminiscent of curry served with pilau rice. Some of the main-stays of Ashkenazi food - e.g. dumplings in soup - can be found on many a non-Jewish Eastern European menu.

Sephardi food, likewise, shares many ingredients and flavors with the foods of the non-Jewish Middle East. Where does this leave us? The answer is simple: Our holiday food traditions reflect our history, not just from ancient times but also from centuries of diaspora wanderings.

Well, I am beginning to get hungry for real Jewish food! On this note, as I start food preparations for the coming holidays, may everyone enjoy the food but most of all may 5785 be a healthy, fruitful, sweet and peaceful year for everyone.

L'Shana Tova.

The Daily Minyan

It is good to remember that while Minyans are necessary to help mourners who are saying Kaddish, they also provide an opportunity to make Misheberach (healing prayers). Attendance at Minyans has been low. By attending at least one Minyan per week, you will not only be doing a Mitzvot but will be helping a fellow congregant through sadness and grief. Minyans are on Sunday morning from 9 to approximately 9:30 AM, Monday and Thursday mornings and evenings at 8 AM and 8 PM respectively. The weekday Minyans are approximately 45 minutes. We hope you can attend a Minyan this week and every week thereafter.

A very healthy, happy 5785.

Sisterhood

October will be a month of many celebrations. We are looking forward to a joyous and peaceful year. September is almost over, and we enjoyed a fun evening at our welcome back event. Thank you to Arline and Sherry for an awesome time with lots of laughs and games. Our Paint Night took place on September 18. We enjoyed painting a Hamas and, as always, great conversation and camaraderie. On September 22, we were able to Zoom with a Sisterhood in Israel and get an update on what is going on. On September 29th we were involved in Reverse Tashlich which is an event advertised by BQLI and is of great importance. As we know, tashlich is a Rosh Hashonah ritual when we symbolically cast-off last year's sins by tossing breadcrumbs in the water.

During Reverse Tashlich we removed human "sins" from the water areas by cleaning up our beaches. This was the seventh Reverse Tashlich. Participants were from around the world and from many local synagogues. This was our first year creating a team to take part in this event. This will hopefully be an annual event hosted by Sisterhood.

October will be a busy month. We hosted our Selichot services in September and will put together candy bags for Sukkot, help decorate and deconstruct the Sukkah, and enjoy Pizza in the Hut which will take place on a Tuesday night during Sukkot (October 22). Please join us in these activities.

On October 27th Sisterhood will have a book discussion about "Only The Brave" by Danielle Steele. This will take place at 10 AM in the synagogue sanctuary. If you enjoy reading, please join in!

Our Sisterhood calendars are available. If you were kind enough to place an ad or greeting, Gita Freed handed out our beautiful New Year calendar during Selichot. If you were unable to get there, please contact Gita.

If you need any information, please contact me at amarcus4@gmail.com. Questions and comments are always welcome.

Wishing you only the best for the New Year—health, happiness, prosperity and peace. L'shana tovah!

Men's Club

The Board of the Men's Club is planning for another busy autumn season.

Before discussing up and coming events, I would be remiss if I did not thank Ab Roher for organizing and running our annual fishing trip on August 25th. Thanks to Ab Roher for organizing and running it. The upper echelon of the shul, including the Rabbi and the President of the shul attended. No one got sick and many fish were caught.

My thanks also go out to Sol Zweben for taking care of the World Series pool for the Men's Club. My hope for this year is that you will all join the Men's Club and participate in all of the many activities that we offer.

In addition, the CBT bowling league has already begun under the able direction of Stu Spectator. I understand there are still spots available. If you would like to participate. If you have a question about how the bowling league works, please contact Stu directly.

As for future events, the Men's Club has offered to help set up the social hall of the synagogue for the High Holidays. We will also be putting up the Sukkah in the synagogue's parking lot on October 13th at 8 AM. Please come on down to help. (Yes, that means you). We do have another paid up membership dinner in the works. This one will be held in the social hall of the synagogue. Thanks to Neil Bezerman, we will soon be going to an Islander game. There is already discussion of perhaps going to another Islander game later in the season. Dave Glickman is looking into the idea of going into Brooklyn to see the Nets play. We will hold a wine sale before Pesach and we will be participating in 2 Men's Club Shabbat services. Other events include a movie night and a night at the gym. These are just a few of the events that are currently planned for our 2024-2025 year.

I look forward to seeing you at many if not most of these planned events. Remember the more you put into something, the more you get out of it.

On behalf of the Board of the Men's Club, my wife Susan and our entire family would like to wish you all a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

Jody

Sisterhood Book Discussion

Sisterhood's next Book Discussion will be on Sunday, October 27 at 10:30 A.M. at the Synagogue. We will be speaking about the novel "Only the Brave" by Danielle Steel.

Danielle Steel is a best selling author whose work is very well received. She has written a powerful, sweeping historical novel about a courageous woman in World War!! Germany. We have discussed many novels that take place during the Holocaust. I chose this one because it describes what happens to a woman who is not Jewish and how she and her family suffer under these terrible times. In fact, she is in the process of becoming a Nun with the Sisters of Mercy.

In this novel, Danielle Steel vividly captures the devastating effects of war alongside beautiful moments of compassion and courage.

Join us for an interesting discussion. Copies of the novel will be available at the Wantagh Public Library.

Have a Happy and Healthy New Year to all of you and your families. Keep on Reading!

FUN...DRAISING OCTOBER, 2024

OCTOBER IS HERE...AND SO ARE THE HOLIDAYS ROSH HASHANAH YOM KIPPUR SUKKOT

Greeting Cards: Once again, Richard Bockstein has done an amazing job designing artwork for our Congregational Greeting Card. Yasher Koach to Rich as well as Rich Slutzah, Cookie Cohen, and Linda Katz for all their hard work.

Kol Nidre Appeal: The appeal letter has gone out. It is important that everyone to respond to this appeal. A successful response is of the utmost importance for the continued survival of Congregation Beth Tikvah Yizkor Book: When we gather to remember our loved ones, we all have a beautiful book in which we list the names of our loved ones whose memory we honor. We could not have this book without the hard work of Richard Slutzah and Linda Katz, and we would not have the resources to produce it without your donations. Yasher Koach to all who participated in this endeavor!

Gift Cards: With a nod to a popular television show, I've informally dubbed this program "BETTER CALL SOL!" When you call or email Sol Zweben (516-795-5499/ sol.zweben@artintel.net) and order gift cards, you are raising money for our shul at ABSOLUTELY NO COST TO YOU. Further, when you purchase sufficient amounts of gift cards ($1000 for single members, $2000 for couples and family members) your annual surcharge is waived, saving YOU money. It's truly a WIN-WIN! So, before you go to your favorite supermarket, restaurant, or retailer, BETTER CALL SOL and order those cards. You'll be glad you did.

JULIETS: With the colder weather approaching, JULIETS is the perfect way to get out of the cold and enjoy a fun afternoon. So come on down on Thursday afternoons and have a good time playing games with old friends and making new friends too. Admission is only $5. Refreshments are served and who knows, if you participate in the 50/50 raffle, you might go home with a little extra cash in YOUR pocket!

Argyle Theatre: The Argyle Theatre supports our shul. For every Main Stage Show production, we get access to discounted tickets to a Sunday afternoon performance. Tickets are currently on sale for "A Christmas Carol" and we will soon be announcing dates for the rest of the season which will include "Jersey Boys," "Fiddler On The Roof," and "The Music Man." These are Broadway quality productions at a fraction of the price, and you don't have to shlep to the City.

Can't make our Congregational Sunday Matinee performances? Tickets for other dates are offered to CBT members. Simply enter the code "CBT" when ordering your tickets.

JNF Trees For Israel: Trees play an important role in Israel. During this stressful year, missile attacks have destroyed a significant portion of Israel's forested area, so there is an especially urgent need to plant new trees. With a donation of $18 for each new tree, you can perform a triple mitzvah. You can commemorate a simcha or provide a living memorial for a deceased loved one while simultaneously helping Israel and raising money for our Shul. A "Triple Play" might be difficult on the baseball field, but it's EASY at CBT! Contact Louise Goldberg at 516-735-6008 today!

Jerry Friedman Memorial Walkway: This is another way you can commemorate a simcha or honor the memory of a loved one. Please reach out to Lorraine Levin (516-679-9774), Dave Kamlet (516-735-0796) to order a brick.

Amazon: Do you order merchandise on Amazon? Instead of just logging onto the Amazon site directly when placing an order, open up the CBT website. Scroll to the very bottom of the Home Page and you will see the Amazon Logo. Click on THAT and you will be taken to the very same Amazon website. The difference is that e when you access Amazon in this way, every order earns a small commission for CBT.

Clothing Bin: CBT earns money from your donations of unused clothing. Whenever you feel the need to make room in your closet by disposing of unused clothing, swing by the CBT Parking lot and place your donations in the clothing bin.

- Commander and soloist of the IDF Rabbinical Choir.

Congregation Beth Tikvah is honored and excited to have Cantor Glantz with us for our upcoming High Holy Days!

The BIKUR CHOLIM COMMITTEE is looking for blank greeting cards that you would like to donate. These cards are used to send speedy recovery and good wishes to those who are sick and recovering from an illness. Please bring any cards you have to the office. Thank you.

Bikur Cholim Committee News

Bikur cholim (also transliterated bikur holim) refers to the mitzvah (Jewish religious commandment) to visit and extend aid to the sick. It is considered an aspect of gemilut chasadim (benevolence, selflessness, loving-kindness). It is traditional to recite prayers for healing, such as the Mi Shebeirach prayer in the synagogue, and Psalms on behalf of the sick. Bikur holim societies exist in Jewish communities around the world. The earliest bikur holim society on record dates to the early Middle Ages. The roots of bikur holim can be traced back to the Torah, when G-d visits Abraham after his circumcision (Genesis 18:1).

Here at Congregation Beth Tikvah our committee strives to keep in touch with members who are ill or even just need to have their day brightened a bit. We send cards, make phone calls, visit and may even provide a drive to an appointment or assist with occasional shopping.

If you think you could assist with any of the above activities... I would love to have you join our committee. Please contact Esta Lachow @ 516-520-1546 for more information.

If you or someone you know may benefit from this, please contact Rabbi Weisblum @ 516-785-2445 or 516-273-2748, or Esta Lachow @ 516-520-1546

Tehillim, or Psalms, have been recited by Jews for thousands of years. These ancient prayers open our hearts and bring renewal and strength to our daily lives. We at CBT in conjunction with Bikur Cholim have formed a Tehillim Circle. Please join us on the second Tuesday of most months (on request) for our Tehillim Service for the healing of our sick. For specific schedules of services check our Shabbat Shalom or call Leah Hartman at home 516-221-5133 or cell 516-459-2021. The power of this group is that it utilizes the collective strengths of those who are saying the psalms together. Join us and bring the names of those persons to be included in our prayers. If you can't make it, call the office with the person's name and their mother's name, and we will include the person's name in our communal listing.

CONGREGATION BETH TIKVAH GOES TO:

"A CHRISTMAS CAROL"

EBENEZER SCROOGE AND HIS GHOSTLY ENCOUNTERS COME TO LIFE IN THIS LAVISH AND THRILLING BROADWAY ADAPTATION.

Broadway heavy hitters, Alan Menken (Beauty and the Beast, The Little Mermaid, Little Shop of Horrors) and Lynn Ahrens (Ragtime, Seussical, Once on This Island), breathe fantastic new life into the classic tale of A Christmas Carol.

Ebenezer Scrooge is a prosperous curmudgeon who believes that personal wealth is far more valuable than the happiness and comfort of others. With a "Bah, Humbug!" he summates his feelings of Christmas tidings and charitable giving but he is forced to face his selfish ways when, on Christmas Eve, three ghosts lead him through his Past, Present and Future. Thanks to their guidance, Scrooge recognizes his faults and greets Christmas morning with a cheerful "Happy Christmas" before spending the day reconnecting and sharing love with those that mean the most to him.

The Jerry Friedman Memorial Walkway

The Jerry Friedman Memorial Walkway is the latest addition to our newly renovated synagogue. It memorializes a long-term member of our congregation and is a beautiful way to remember special people or events in our lives. Order bricks to commemorate a special occasion, honor a special person or event, or in memory of a loved one.

The cost is $75.00 per brick. Please use the order form on the reverse side.

Jerry Friedman: A Gentleman - A Gentle Man

Jerry was deeply involved in the Wantagh Jewish Center and served in many roles including Membership Vice President, Member of the Board of Trustees and President of the Men's Club. He served as Kol Nidre Appeal Chairperson, was a member of the Long Term Planning Committee, Synagogue Consolidation Committee and Shabbat Aliyah Chairperson.

Clearly, Jerry's most notable and visible role was that of the official "Shabbos Greeter". For many years, everyone who entered our doors for services was personally greeted with a handshake, a warm greeting, maybe a kiss and a feeling of being welcomed and wanted. Everyone who entered our doors knew Jerry - "A Gentleman and a Gentle Man."
